Essex Regional Retirement System – Board of Directors Fifth Member

The Essex Regional Retirement System (ERRS) is seeking a Fifth Member for its Board of Directors. ERRS is a public pension system serving 19 towns, six regional school districts, 17 housing authorities and six special districts throughout Essex County Massachusetts. In accordance with Massachusetts General Law, Chapter 34B, Section 19A, the Fifth Member shall not be an employee, retiree or official of the Essex Regional Retirement System or of any of its constituent governmental units.

ERRS is governed by a five-member Board of Directors which is charged with the pension administration of its 5,000 active and retired public employee members. The Board of Directors meets monthly in their Danvers office. Occasionally additional meetings are required. The Board members receive an annual stipend of $3,000. Day-to-day administration of ERRS is managed by the Executive Director and the system employs six full-time employees.

Interested candidates should forward their letter of interest and resume to Charles E. Kostro, Executive Director, Essex Regional Retirement System, 491 Maple Street, Danvers, MA, 01923 or via email at director@essexregional.com. Additional information on the Essex Regional Retirement System is available on the Essex Regional Retirement website at www.essexregional.com. Applications must be received by 4:30 p.m. on November 22, 2011.
